1991 MOBIL JUDGES

HARRY BELAFONTE

Recording artist, movie, Broadway and television star, Mr. Belafonte is perhaps best known globally as a leader in the human rights struggle. He has produced and hosted a number of Emmy-award winning specials, including "Tonight with Belafonte", "The Strollin' Twenties" and "A Time for Laughter." He established himself as a formidable actor, winning a Tony for his performance on Broadway in "Tom Anderson's Almanac" and in film ("Odds Against Tomorrow" and "Buck and The Preacher", among others). "Calypso", Mr. Belafonte's first album was the first in history to sell over a million copies. Among his many upcoming projects, Mr. Belafonte is producing a mini-series for ABC-TV based on the lives of Nelson and Winnie Mandela.

WALDEMAR KORZENIOWSKY

A graduate of the Polish Film Academy in Lodz, Mr. Korzeniowsky brings with him nearly 20 years of experience as a producer and film director in the US and Europe. In addition to producing and directing TV specials for RKO, he has produced for PBS, CBS-TV, Danish and German TV, and made a number of award-winning medical films. Mr. Korzeniowsky's first feature film, "The Chair" will be released on video in May. He is currently working on his next feature project, "A Lucky Day for The Elephants."

ALAN KLEINBERG

Producer of numerous music videos and short films, Mr. Kleinberg has worked with such directors as Academy Award-winning Zbigniew Rybczynski, Jim Jarmusch ("Down By Law") and video artist Joan Logue. He has also produced for Lorne Michaels' "The New Show", "Saturday Night Live" and Children's Television Workshop. Most recently he completed production of "Storytelling Giant", the Talking Heads music compilation tape directed by David Byrne for Warner Bros. He is presently involved in the development of three independent feature films, as well as his first venture into theatrical production with "Fluorescent Hunger."

RICHARD PENA

Richard Pena is Program Director of the Film Society of Lincoln Center and Chairman of the Selection Committee for the New York Film Festival. He has taught film history and theory at Harvard, UC/Berkley, the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, and is currently Adjunct Professor of Film Studies at Columbia University.

DAVID PICKER

A third generation motion picture executive and producer, Mr. Picker has an enviable list of credits: while at Columbia Pictures as President and Chief Operating Officer, Mr. Picker produced John Boorman's "Hope and Glory", Spike Lee's "School Daze", "Visa Versa", and "Punchline",
